

Non-Discriminatory Policy

The Allinson Institute does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, or any other characteristic protected under federal, state, and local laws in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and financial aid programs, hiring and employment practices, or any other programs and activities.

The Allinson Institute is dedicated to:

- Individuals with individuals with Level 3 Autism as measured by DSM-5 (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 5th Edition)
- Providing equal access to education, employment, and services.
- Ensuring reasonable accommodations for individuals with disabilities.
- Maintaining an environment free from harassment, retaliation, and discrimination.
- Actively fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion in all aspects of its operations.
- This policy applies to all students, employees, applicants, volunteers, vendors, and community members.

Publication & Compliance

This Non-Discriminatory Policy shall be: Publicly available and included in all official materials, including:

- Admissions brochures
- Student and employee handbooks
- The school/organization's website
- Promotional and informational materials
- Communicated to all students, parents, employees, and stakeholders.
- Regularly reviewed to ensure ongoing compliance with applicable laws and best practices.